

CALENDAR & NOTES

- ♦ Help Sue Noel (Barnaby's mom!) celebrate her birthday by joining her and her friends for birthday cake and a private free screening of the wonderful movie "Harry and Snowman" at Magic Lantern movie theater in Ketchum on Monday, October 2nd at 3pm.
- ♦ There will be a volunteer training session at Sunday, October 8th from 10am-12pm. Please allow the volunteers and instructors some distance to avoid distraction. They will use the outdoor arena if weather allows, otherwise the training will be held inside.
- ♦ RSS is proud to be able to provide group lessons to veterans through the Higher Ground program for five consecutive Saturdays, beginning on October 21st from 9am-11am. As above, please allow the participants some distance to avoid distraction. They will use the outdoor arena if weather allows, otherwise the lessons will be held inside.
- ♦ Trudy will be hosting a cow sorting on Sunday, October 22nd from 9am-1pm. Please contact her if you'd like to join in on the fun!
- ♦ The Stock Horse Series awards banquet will be on the afternoon of Sunday, October 22nd following the cow sorting. The luncheon is open to ALL friends of River Sage Stables, even if you did not participate in the series, and awards will be presented to the division winners.
- ♦ Pony Club mounted lessons will continue on most Sunday afternoons throughout the fall. Please check the schedule carefully to know when the arenas will be busy, especially as the cold weather sets in.
- ♦ As a courtesy to your fellow boarders and to keep our horses safe, please shut gates behind you when you go in and out of the arenas or grass paddocks. We don't want wind to rip gates off hinges and we certainly don't want to turn horses out only to find that gates were left open.
- ♦ If your horse gets supplement s, PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE clearly label all of your baggies (not just your container) with your horse's name. Many baggies look similar and labeling your bags will ensure your horse gets his/her supplements and not anyone else's! Thank you!
